THE Town is laid out, and every Man, by drawing Lots, knows where to build his Houſe. The Governor has made the beſt Diſpoſition he can of the Troops, in order to guard againſt any Attempts of the Indians, ſhould they begin to be troubleſome. Thirteen Indians are arrived here, three Deputies from the Tribes at St. John's, the Chief of the Chinecto Indians, and nine of their Tribes; they came with Inſtructions from their Nations to renew their Submiſſion, and Articles of Agreement, according to the laſt Treaty made in the year 1726: and this Afternoon they return by Sea to St. John's with Captain Howe, who carries Preſents for the Chiefs and the whole Tribes, and is to bring back the Treaty ratified.

The Empreſs having conferred the Order of St. Andrew, vacant by the Death of the late Charles Leopold, Duke of Mecklembourg, on the preſent Duke of that Country, the Enſigns thereof were Yeſterday delivered by her Imperial Majeſty to M. Berckholtz, his Miniſter at this Court, who will ſet out with the ſame in a few Days, having already taken his Leave, and received the uſual Preſents. Her Imperial Majeſty has preſented Lord Hyndford with her Picture ſet in Diamonds, valued at 12,000 Rubles. Laſt Friday a Grand Council was held in the Empreſs's Preſence, at which the Senate, all the Great Officers of State, the Miniſters for Foreign Affairs, together with the Great Council of War, and the College of the Admiralty, aſſiſted; in which, 'tis ſaid, ſome favourable Reſolutions were taken with regard to the Peace in the North. Her Imperial Majeſty having notified to the Senate her Reſolution of returning ſoon to Petersbourg, Orders have been iſſued for the whole Court to hold itſelf in Readineſs to ſet out on the firſt Notice.

Petersbourg, Sept. 13. The Inhabitants of this City ſeem mightily pleaſed with the Advice they have received from Moſcow of the Court's Intention of returning ſoon to this Place. 'Tis expected that the Troops, which are at preſent cantonned in and about Livonia, will go into Winter Quarters towards the End of the Month, however ſo as to be eaſily drawn together again in Caſe there ſhould be any Occaſion for them.

Madrid, Sept. 16. The Biſhop of Oviedo, heretofore Governor of the Council of Caſtile, to whom the King had given the Biſhoprick of Plaiſance in Eſtramadura, has obtained his Majeſty's Leave to retire to his Biſhoprick. Genoa, Sept. 17. The Nobility and Citizens having complained to the Government of ſeveral ſeditious Papers, which have lately been ſtuck up in divers Parts of this City, many ſuſpected Perſons have been thereupon taken into Cuſtody, and Proſecutions are ordered to be commenced againſt them.
